

Mitchell County

This map depicts the Spruce Pine region in North Carolina. The Toe River flows through the center, with its headwaters in the north. To the northwest, the Pisgah National Forest is indicated. The town of Spruce Pine, with a population of 2,282, is located in the lower right. The map is crisscrossed by a network of roads, many labeled 'FAS' (Forest Access Road) or with numbers like 226, 1274, and 1272. Other features include 'Chestnut Creek', 'Graveyard Creek', and 'Sawtooth Creek'. A shaded area near the center represents a specific land parcel. The map also shows the 'NORTH' direction and various elevation points or markers.

FUELS: UNLEADED, DIESEL